It's a Jungle Out There!

Keeping the greenery under control

It doesn't seem like it could get any hotter and we hope it doesn't. Still, the results of the heat have caused many leaves to drop early and some shrubs and trees have simply not made it.

That means it's time to trim and remove the deadwood, have the dead trees removed and rake and bag those leaves.

Earlier this summer, the abundant rain caused an overgrowth of some shrubs that have obscured and obstructed sidewalks and curbs.

Cutting back those overgrown trees and shrubs provides safety and see "It's a Jungle..." pg 2)

Choose the Right Kind of Neighbors!

Time to Pimp Your Backyard!

Behind the fences, behind the gates, behind the beautiful front yards, lurks a demon, dark and scary, that must be exposed!

overgrown flower beds have choked out the lawn. Tall weeds and invasive growth are everywhere.

The majority of our residents take excellent care of their properties and we thank you for that! We-- your neighbors, your Board, your management company—appreciate your responsible and diligent efforts.

These conditions are prime breeding grounds for vermin of every kind. Rats, snakes, roaches large and small find the perfect environment to multiply and spread.

However, there are some back yards that have become a threat to the health and safety of the resident and the surrounding properties.

The situation has become serious enough that CMS, in cooperation with our Board of Directors, is working to identify the unsafe properties and take steps to have them cleaned up.

You know what we’re talking about. These back yards are the ones full of discarded items: rusted barbeques, ruined lawn furniture, broken toys. Piles of rotting lumber and fallen limbs along with Any back yards that are deemed to be a health and/or safety hazard will be documented and reported to the local Health Department. At that time, the Health Department will take legal steps to have these properties cleaned up.

security for pedestrians, cyclists, and drivers.

There are two good reasons to keep our overgrown shrubs and trees trimmed:

1. Safety

Children playing are seen and can be seen. This avoids injuries and accidents.

Pedestrians do not have to step out into the street but can use the sidewalks.

Drivers have a clear view of the street at intersections.

2. Security

Eliminating excess shrubbery allows maximum street lighting and lets our officers see into our property as they patrol.

Let’s keep the greenery under control!
